

Jessica Barnett DeCuir earned an MFA from the University of Texas at San Antonio and a BFA Webster University, St. Louis. She is Adjunct Faculty at the Southwest School of Art and San Antonio College, where she received the Award of Excellence for Teaching with Technology in 2012. Jessica is an exhibiting visual artist and musician in the husband/wife duo, Hyperbubble. The duo have had numerous CD and vinyl record releases since 2001, performing live at numerous local and national shows with over ten international music performances, most recently in London in 2014. DeCuir has had over 60 professional exhibitions of her work and collaborations since 1993, including: The Ellen Noel Museum of Art (Odessa, TX), The Art Car Museum (Houston, TX), Blue Star Contemporary Art Museum (San Antonio, TX), The McKinney Avenue Contemporary (Dallas, TX), Sala Diaz, Luminaria, and the Southwest School of Art (SA), Cecille R. Hunt Gallery, St. Louis Design Center, and the Center of Contemporary Art (St. Louis, MO), Lieu Common in Toulouse, France, and ICPNA (North American Cultural Institute of Peru), Lima.

Jessica resides in San Antonio with her husband, Jeff, and their three cats: Smokey, Flyboy, and Bella.